CONFERENCE THEME

Pedagogical Innovations in English Language and Literature: Challenges and Opportunities

English language teaching has undergone tremendous changes over the years. The career alternatives once regarded insignificant are gaining importance in present scenario. Communication skills, soft skills, technical skills, interpersonal skills, ICT literacy etc. have become order of the day. The need for groomed graduates who can fit successfully in the global market is in great demand. For this, the trend of teaching learning process in English language has to undergo a transition. The English teachers convene conferences and seminars to create a platform for sharing of upcoming innovations in the ELT so that they can upgrade themselves professionally. Academic qualification alone may not help teachers to grow professionally, but they need to be updated with the current practices.

Education can bring transformation through innovative teaching methods which are the best instruments to enhance the quality of our education. The educational institutions are required to be innovative as they teach new skills and develop new insights and approaches. Teaching English is a dynamic practice that is influenced by socio-cultural, economic and political factors, particularly in this age of globalization and technological advancement. Language educators have a pressing need to constantly update the knowledge of content and pedagogy to address the demands of the current scenario and with this backdrop the present conference Sahityavithi-2021 has been organised.

The deliberations in the conference will help to understand the innovations in literature and language and will give a platform to discuss how the theoretical perspectives and pedagogical insights are needed to teach language and literature.
